One of the hopes of the Washington and Lee footbail followers is that the weather in Richmond on Saturday, October 17, will be bright and fair and clear and coid. It was bright and fair when the Generals last clashed on the gridiron with Georgetown in Washington two years ago, but it was no clear and coid, being instead decidedly

The citizens of Woodland Heights and Swansboro will be supplied first, and later the outlying districts.

The citizens of Woodland Heights are calved first, and later through the country. There is no disposition at Lexington, however, to believe that Coach Elcock's machine will be able to keep up its record of tailying more than a point a minute, particularly as in the near future the Generals will take on Georgetown, Swarthtions.

Mack said:
"Baseball is an uncertain proposition.
There's no telling what will happen in a ball game. The 'dope,' as it is in a ball game. The 'dope,' as it is called, often is upset. But, understand me, I have every confidence in my boys. I know what they can do and what they have done in other world series battles. They have been put to the test before, and they weren't found wanting. I do not care to make any straight prediction, but, remember this, my boys are in prime shape, and the my boys are in prime shape, and that means a great deal."

CLUSTER SPRINGS READY FOR M'GUIRE'S ELEVEN

CLUSTER SPRINGS, VA., October 8.
—Coach Graham is bending every effort to whip the Cluster Springs Academy team into shape to meet the McGuire's School eleven on the local gridiron Saturday.

The team made a good showing against Lynchburg last Saturday, and Coach Graham is putting the Academy boys through some heavy work to make their plays go off for gains.

Special interest centres in this game, because McGuire's has arranged to bring the Academy lads to Richmond Thanksgiving Day for a return game on the Greater Richmond College stadium, giving Cluster Springs its first opportunity to send an athletic team to Richmond.

This will give the visiting team an opportunity of witnessing the Virginia-Carolina contest.

SOUTH RICHMOND INDICTS WILLIAM LORIMER

WOODLAND HEIGHTS WANTS GAS FOR COOKING

Case Under Advisement.

After hearing arguments for both sides yesterday in the case of Rev. Albert T. Overby, charged with defrauding the Calvary Baptist Church, Magistrate Cowan announced that he would render his decision on Wednesday morning. Attorney J. M. Turner represented the accused preacher, while William M. Justis, Jr., appeared for the board of deacons. Overby is alleged to have stolen $46.50, which was given him to pay bills against the church.

Women Ordered to Leave.

Mrs. Jennie Hornstein and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, charged with being disorderly, and the former with cutting her husband with a razor, were fined $10 by Justice Maurice yesterday morning in Police Court, Part II., and ordered to leave the Southside. Mrs. Hornstein, who is the wife of Samuel Hornstein, a barber of 1108 Hull Street, is said to have slashed at her husband after an argument.

Moore—Martin.

A pretty but quiet wedding took place on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Sacred Heart Cathedral; when Miss Ethel E. Martin became the bride of Ernest P. Moore. Father Drake performed the ceremony in the priest's parlor of the cathedral. Miss Martin is a popular resident of the Southside, and Mr. Moore is a valued employe of the A. J. Daffron Furniture Company, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will make their future home on East Tenth Street.

Philathea Classes to Meet. An interesting program will be rendered at the meeting of all of the Baraca-Philathea classes which will be held to light in the Bainbridge Street Baptist Church. Important business will be taken up at the joint session, and a large attendance is expected.

HEAVY DAMAGE IS DONE
BY TERRIFIC HAILSTORM
ROANOKE, VA., October 8.—Thousands of dollars will not cover the loss sustained by the farmers and apple growers of this immediate vicinity as the result of a severe wind and hall-storm which swept this end of Roanoke Valley this afternoon. For fifteen min-utes the hall fell. The hall was accompanied by terrific wind, lightning and rain. The apple crops which had not been picked off, and many late corn and tomato crops, were ruined. No estimate has been made as to the full extent of damage.
